

FEDERAL SOLDIERS AND "REBELS" LYING IN DEATH

They are all the victims of the automatic "machine guns" mounted on the roof of the palace. The federal soldiers are distinguishable by their uniforms.

DAILY COMMENT ON PEOPLE AND THINGS

It was exceedingly thoughtful of Madero to resign—after being told he'd be shot if he didn't.

The troubles of Mayor Harrison's friend, Mammy Abrahams, are as many, and as involved as a Mexican revolution.

Manny is giving a stag banquet at the West Side coliseum tonight in honor of Manny Abrahams, Hearst candidate for alderman from the Twentieth.

Manny's guests probably will be nervous. Some sprightly unfriend of Manny's is apt to put a bomb under the coliseum while the toasts are being offered.

Nevertheless, Manny's stag banquet ought to be worth attending if for no other reason than as an object lesson in representative government as practiced in America.

Judge Gemmill has contrived to talk himself into a good deal of notoriety—and he doesn't seem to have known what he was talking about.

And J. Ham Lewis, doubtless being envious of Gemmill, wrote down a few thoughts of Woodrow Wilson and sent them anony-
